“ My heartfelt condolences to dear Adolfo's wife Alma and children as well as his siblings and other loved ones. You left too soon, Primo, and I am thankful that we connected after so many years. God saw that you were tired and took you home. You earned your wings and have left but only for a little while. I will miss you. Rest in peace.

“ To my uncle Adolfo “Tio Coyote” Like I used to tell him when I was little, I can say he was the most loving person I ever met. I remember the countless moments of my childhood when he used to come to Costa Rica to visit us. The time when he and tia Alma and Fito, Jairo , and Gabriel spent Christmas with us. On time he brought me a little LP with the Freddie Fender Song, and we played it over and over and yhe sang the song with me so many times that up until today that song stick in my mind forever. His laugh, and his love for music and dancing. And how he used to call me “plumito” every time we talked. I always knew he was there on the phone with my mom for hours and I knew he was ok. I thought I had time to say “I love you” one more time but now time went to fast and did not had enough time to Say it one more time. But I know from heaven he is he will be looking down to all of us and he knows how much we loved him and how much he will be missed. He was an amazing dad, uncle, husband, brother, Grandpa, friend and much more. I will always love him and will Keep him in my heart forever. I’m so sorry for your loss to all of my cousins and their families and Tia Alma. . I love you all.

“ My dear and loving brother, Adolfo, is gone. My sincere sympathy to his loving wife, Alma, children and grandchildren. The void that he leaves in our hearts will never be filled, and time is never enough to spend with those we love, or prepare our hearts to say goodbye. May he rest in Jesus' loving arms.

“ My dearest brother. Adolfo, has left us. My condolences to his beloved Alma, children and grandchildren. He was a favorite uncle and had special names for his nieces: Plumito, Kikoman. etc. Adolfo was the life of the party and always had a happy smile on his face. We will miss him for a very long time. I am confident that one day we will see him again on that beautiful shore. Rest well, my brother.

“ Nuestro más sentido pésame a la familia Sinclair Matus por el sensible fallecimiento de mi Tío Adolfo, extensivo a sus tres hermanas, su hermano, nietos, sobrinos y demás familiares. Mi Tío se distinguió siempre por la alegría que llevaba consigo a todas partes, su amor por la música country y su habilidad para ponerle apodos a todos en la familia, su apodo para mi era “Energizer” y mi apodo para él era “Tío Lic” El Tío Lic deja un gran vacío para la familia entera, nos quedan sus recuerdos y la convicción de que efectivamente ese buen hombre ya descansa en bendita paz.
R.I.P. Tío Lic ❤️ until we meet again

“ My sincere condolences to the Sinclair Matus and Sinclair Barrantes families. My brother, Adolfo, was a kindhearted, caring, and happy going person, always with a smile on his face. He grew up and graduated from High School in Bluefields, Nicaragua. He then went on to Mexico City for his college education. He was a professor at the Instituto Nacional de Varones Cristóbal Colón in his hometown, then afterwards settling down in Managua. From there he went to Miami where he lived until he passed away. He is survived by his wife, Alma Sinclair, his three sons: Adolfo, Jairo Gabriel and his daughter Gabriela, also his grandchildren, brother: Carlen and sisters: Graciela, Wanda and myself; lots of nieces, nephews and cousins. May God grant him eternal rest until we meet again.
