

Ines Catalina Vignes

October 15, 1951 - December 9, 2018

VIGUES, Ines Catalina, 67, died on Sunday, December 9, 2018 in Miami, Florida surrounded by loved ones and her husband Bernardo Sanchez.

From her birth in Cuba on October 15, 1951, until her death, Ine (as everyone affectionately called her) always looked for the good in everyone and the positive side to every situation. It was hard to find Ine in a bad mood and if you asked her how she was doing she always said great or wonderful! She was a woman of strong faith and that faith, along with love and support of her family, gave her strength to overcome some of the struggles she had in life, and most recently her battle with cancer.

Ines and her family emigrated from Cuba in December of 1969. She graduated from high school and went on to receive a Bachelor's Degree from St. Thomas University. She worked for over 25 years at the YMCA of Greater Miami, but her other passion as teaching religion to young children in South Florida. She did this for over 30 years. Religious education and sharing her faith with others might have been her passion, but Ine's heart was her family. She loved her family unconditionally and the bond she shared with her parents and her brothers was unbreakable. Although Ine never had her own children, she did have her "girls" – Melissa and Monica. She was also the very proud great aunt to five boys – Maxwell, Luka, Evan, Same, and Mikah. She never missed an opportunity to tell them "I love you to the moon and back."

Twelve years ago, she married the love of her life. Bernardo and her shared a deep love and affection for each other and it was obvious to everyone that met them. At times Ine liked to be spoiled and Bernardo made sure she felt like a queen every single day. Ine we will miss you, your light and your beautiful smile. But like you said one of the last days you were with us. "See you soon and I love you to the moon and back."

Visitation will be on Thursday, December 13, 2018, from 9:00 am-10:00 am at St. Raymond Catholic Church. Mass celebrated at 10:00 am for the eternal rest of her soul followed by interment at 11:30 pm at Our Lady of Mercy Catholic Cemetery.
